

FIELD IS CLEAR
FOR WHITEHEAD

Fred Dennett and Walter Alexander Are Out of the Race.

WAR ON POPULISM

Republican Leaders Agree Upon a Plan to Defeat Gov. La Follette.

ALL BEHIND ONE MAN

The field is now perfectly clear for John M. Whitehead, the stalwart candidate for governor against La Follette, says the Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean. Walter Alexander has positively stated that he is out of the race, if he had ever been in it, because his business interests would not warrant the sacrifice, and Fred Dennett taking the same course when asked for a statement of his intentions for publication. Mr. Dennett will not be a candidate against Whitehead, and will give the Janesville senator his loyal and enthusiastic support. With the understanding that Whitehead is the choice of the stalwarts, and that La Follette is to be in the race, Mr. Dennett said:

"As the matter stands today, I shall not stand in the way of anyone who is up against La Follette for the Republican nomination. I shall do nothing whatsoever to complicate matters, and whoever is thought by the stalwarts to be the best man to defeat the present governor will receive my hearty support. I am, in fact, in full accord with the views of the leaders, and will support Whitehead to the best of my ability, for I believe he is the choice of the stalwart leaders.

Liberal in His Views
"Living as I do in a German-American community, surrounded by European and continental ideas concerning personal liberty, I believe the insinuation that Whitehead's religious views would be a weight on him in the lake shore counties does the German-American element an injustice, which most of them would resent. It is a fact that there is a deep religious sentiment among the Germans, even those who allow themselves the utmost observance, of the matter of Sunday observance.

"In my judgment if the German-American voters can be convinced that Whitehead is liberal in his religious views and is disposed to accord them a free exercise of their own judgment concerning liberty of personal conduct within the law, and not entrusting the opinions of those who hold more strict views, they will support him."

That Man Is Whitehead
At the present time there is but one stalwart in the field; that man is Whitehead, and there is no reason to believe that he will have any company as a candidate in the convention but La Follette. Alexander Dennett and Whitehead are the only men who have ever been regarded as possibilities. Whitehead has made no announcement of his candidacy but will probably do nothing until he is formally called by voters. It is impossible to state at this time whether there is any move in this direction or not but it has been customary to issue a petition call for candidates who are believed to be in public favor, and for the candidate to reply in formal manner, stating whether he will accept a nomination.

Favorite among Stalwarts
So far as the leaders are concerned there never has been a great deal of discussion of candidates for the governorship against La Follette, but when the subject was taken up recently it immediately developed that Whitehead was the favorite. His connection with the tax-commission legislation and his address before the Six O'Clock Club at Madison were the factors that developed his fitness for the office of governor in the eyes of stalwarts, who wanted a man who, while a reformer, and who believed in equalization of taxation, was not a radical exponent of populist ideas, and who could be trusted with a prominent part in a tax reform that every one hopes to see brought about.

Mr. Whitehead's vigorous and open fight against the primary election law also had something to do with making him the popular favorite among the stalwarts. His argument against that obnoxious measure at the last session of the legislature, and his masterly handling of the tax question at Madison a week ago, brought him out, and resulted in the determination of the stalwarts that he should be their candidate.

Never Been a Radical
So far as Mr. Whitehead's religious or temperance opinions are concerned there is nothing to fear. He has never been a radical in the matter of drinking or of church attendance. He believes in religious liberty and would do nothing to restrain a man in the enjoyment of his personal liberty. Mr. Whitehead is a law-abiding and liberty loving citizen, but is neither puritanical or narrow. He does not drink intoxicating liquors himself, but does not think that a man who does is necessarily a bad citizen. The friends of La Follette will hardly find it a profitable undertaking to try to defeat Whitehead because he is religious or temperate.

ICEBOAT RACE ON LAKE MONONA

Otto Schroeder's Lulu Won Both Races in the Fast Time of 17 Minutes, 7 Seconds.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 13.—(Special)—The iceboat race on Lake Monona Saturday afternoon was sailed in a gale so fierce that Mark Banta's "Flying Cloud," from Oakshosh, did not start and the contest narrowed down between Chas. Cuno's "Criterion," from Oconomowoc, and seven Madison yachts. The "Criterion's" sails were not arranged for so stiff a wind, and she was outclassed, finishing sixth in one race and seventh in the other. Otto Schroeder's "Lulu" won both races in the fast time of 17 minutes, 7 seconds in the first, over a 12 mile course which included six turns at flag stacks. This means that she ran better than a mile a minute at several points in the race. L. M. Hobbins' "Zaza" was a close second, being but 5 seconds behind in the first race and 21 in the second. F. M. Brown's "Meteor" finished third in both races.

WISCONSIN MEN ON FEDERAL ROSTER

There Are 348 Badger People on Uncle Sam's Pay Roll, Drawing $456,752 Per Year.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—According to the official register of the United States, the biennial publication containing a roster of Uncle Sam's servants, there are 348 Wisconsin people in the administration departments, including those holding positions under congress and in the diplomatic and consular service. These persons draw salaries aggregating $456,752 a year. The list from which these figures are taken is of the persons in the service of the government June 30, 1901, the end of the fiscal year, and a few changes made by appointments since that time are given.

The list appended does not include, except in a few cases, persons employed outside the national capital. Where the annual salary is not given, the pay is per diem, or per hour, as in the government printing office, and for a few special appointees, who are not on duty the year round. As many clerks have been dropped in the census office since June 30, the number employed at the present time is less than that given in the table.

In House and Senate

In the house the pension appropriation bill was taken up after the district bills had been reported and passed upon.

Mrs. William Pomeroy is confined to her home by sickness.

PLANS TO GREET
PRINCE HENRY

Warm Welcome Will Be Given the Son of Kaiser William.

COMING ON A VISIT

German Emperor Has a Very Friendly Feeling Toward the United States.

HONOR FOR HIS SON

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Prince Henry of Prussia is to be given a reception befitting the high station he occupies and the representative of such a great nation as Germany. The programme for his welcome, which will be immediately prepared, is almost as interesting a subject of speculation in diplomatic circles as are the reasons which induced Emperor William to send him here.

Prince Henry will be treated with the most distinguished courtesy. Upon his arrival at Washington he will be received by representatives of the president and of the army and navy and by a military escort. Before he lands a salute of twenty-one guns will be fired. At the launching of the imperial yacht, which will be christened by Miss Roosevelt, his address will be answered by the president in terms as cordial as his himself will employ.

Reception at Capital

When he reaches Washington he will be received by the president and will be invited to be the guest of the nation. He may prefer to stop at the German embassy. Following his call upon the president Mr. Roosevelt will return the courtesy and will subsequently invite him to dinner, which will be attended by the most prominent men in the nation. Everything will be done to make Prince Henry's visit a pleasant memory.

The imperial yacht Hohenzollern will also be given a cordial reception. It is possible that the North Atlantic squadron may find its itinerary cut short, and that it will be ordered to receive the yacht at sea, accompany it to port and take its share in doing honor to the Prince of Prussia. Such action will give Prince Henry, who is an officer of the German navy, an opportunity to see the latest American battle ships.

Roosevelt is Pleased

President Roosevelt is naturally pleased at the persistence of Emperor William in endeavoring to promote friendly relations with this government. During the four months of his administration Emperor William has given positive assurances that he has no intention of occupying territory on this continent; has shown a desire to consult the United States with respect to the collection of claims from Venezuela; has asked that the President's daughter christen his new yacht, and has finally announced that his brother and his imperial yacht will pay a visit to this country. The desire for American friendship is so obvious that it has impressed the officials.

The main was for $25 a side, with $5 more on each battle, but there was considerable betting and the Madison sports have about $600 of Freeport money to spend.

FANTASTIC IDEA
OF DR. ROBERTS

Dr. Kempster Opposed to His Plan to Experiment on Children.

DRINKING OF MILK

Dr. Wingate Says Public Sentiment Will Not Approve the Plan.

HAS NO LEGAL RIGHT

Milwaukee, Jan. 13.—Local physicians do not believe it safe or proper for the state board of health to act on the startling suggestion of Dr. W. P. Roberts of Janesville, that a number of children be taken and for a number of months be fed on the milk of cows infected with tuberculosis, in order to test by actual experiment the effects of such action and incidentally ascertain whether tuberculosis is contagious.

Dr. Roberts Braches Scheme

Dr. Roberts graduated from the Hahnemann Homeopathic Medical college of Chicago, in the class of 1876. For some time he has been in correspondence with Dr. U. O. B. Wingate, secretary of the state board of health, in regard to his desire for investigation and experiments along this line, under authority of the state board on the grounds that the fund set aside for defraying the expenses of handling epidemic diseases should be used for that purpose.

Three letters were written by Dr. Roberts and as many by the secretary who expressed doubts as to the advisability of the scheme. In Dr. Roberts' last communication he intimated that there would be a delegation of visiting physicians at the meeting of the state board of health which convenes next Friday at Madison. While the communications of the Janesville physician will be read at that time by the secretary and the visitors given an opportunity to present their case, there is little likelihood of favorable action by the state board.

Against Proposed Experiment

Dr. Walter Kempster, former commission of health for Milwaukee, said "I can hardly believe the Janesville physician could have made the suggestions attributed to him. However, I certainly do not believe in the propriety of such experiments. That tuberculosis is contagious can be said to be the accepted theory. Such experiments would be dangerous and probably fatal in their results." "I consider experiments of that kind absolutely unwarrantable," said Dr. C. H. Lemon. "It is possible that they might be tried with profit on criminals condemned to die, but their use on little children, who are defenseless and unable to look after their own interests, would be criminal. It is an established contention that tuberculosis is contagious and I believe to spread the disease would be an unheard of act. A disease which is decimating the population should not be experimented with on human beings. The amount of good which would be derived from such tests is questionable."

Dr. Wingate Opposed

Dr. U. O. B. Wingate of the state board of health differs materially with Dr. Roberts and contends that the contagious nature of tuberculosis has been clearly proven. Dr. Wingate says that it has not only been shown that bovine tuberculosis is communicable to man, but that human tuberculosis can be transmitted to cattle. Dr. Wingate is of the opinion that public sentiment would not approve of the plan suggested by Dr. Roberts, and that there is considerable doubt as to the legal right of the board to permit such experiments to be conducted.

TO DESTROY THE SEEDS OF DISEASE

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board Gives Good Advice in a Circular Letter.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 13.—The Wisconsin live stock sanitary board has issued its second circular, which has to do with the treatment of contagious diseases among animals. In this connection it says:

"The presence of most contagious diseases among stock requires that the affected premises shall be thoroughly and properly disinfected in order to destroy the seeds of the disease that are generally capable of retaining their vitality outside of the affected animal for a varying period of time."

"To disinfect is to destroy infectious matter, and this can only be done by bringing the disinfecting agent in direct contact with the disease germ, under such conditions as to kill the same, etc., that are accessible to stock, unless the poisonous chemical is subsequently removed. As a preliminary step to any disinfectant can come in direct contact with the surfaces to be treated. The most efficient disinfectants for general purposes are corrosive sublimate, carbolic acid, chloride of lime, formaldehyde."

STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS MAY CLASH

Northern Wisconsin Capitalists Up Before Judge Jenkins on a Charge of Contempt.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Assemblyman A. W. McLeod, district attorney of Bayfield county; Captain R. D. Pike, of Bayfield; D. M. Maxey, M. A. Sprague, W. H. Lemke, John A. Jacobs and Carl Hirsch of Washburn, were before the federal court this afternoon, Judge Jenkins of Milwaukee, sitting with Judge Bunn, on charge of contempt of court for interfering with the order of the court directing the tearing up of the Washburn, Bayfield and Iron River railroad now in the hands of a receiver, A. C. Frost, of Chicago.

Bayfield county issued $185,000 bonds to aid in the construction of the road, and claims its present financial condition was brought about by the management of the receiver, and has invoked the aid of the state courts to prevent the carrying out of the order for its destruction. A clash of authority between federal and state courts is threatened.

The boarding house is but two blocks from the university buildings and in the center of the student quarter.

Schwab's Third Day at the Game.

Monte Carlo, Jan. 13.—Charles M. Schwab, president of the American billion dollar street trust, was $140,000 ahead of the game in the Casino gambling room at one time during the day. At the same moment it became known that Lord Rosslyn, the English peer with a system for breaking the bank, was penniless, at the end of his string and would leave for London tonight, shorn by the professional gamblers and his widely advertised scheme for getting millions absolutely discredited. Notwithstanding his tremendous winnings, Mr. Schwab quit the day with about an even showing as between him and the bank for the three days that he has been playing. Mr. Schwab was asked how long he intended to go on with his struggle with the bank. "I am not talking for publication," he replied. "If anything is mentioned in the press about my playing here I shall never return to Monte Carlo."

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 13.—Horace Elisha Scudder, aged 63 years, the well-known author and litterateur, is dead at his home in this city. His works were principally written for children and he is remembered as one of the greatest devotees of folklore in the past decade. He was also the editor of several magazines, being in charge of the Atlantic Monthly from 1890 to 1893, when his health began to fail. He was also at other times in editorial charge of Young People, the Riverside Magazine and several small educational children's journals. He leaves a widow and daughter.

Plan Giant Stadium.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Harry J. Furber, Jr., president of the Olympian Games Association of Chicago, has just received the preliminary plans for the great stadium in which the athletic contests of 1904 are to be held. These plans provide for a stadium that will seat 75,000 persons, and which in point of size, elegance and excellence of arrangement will excel any other building ever erected for a similar purpose. The building called for, it is asserted, will house the Olympian games of 1904 which are to be held in Chicago on a scale of magnificence never equaled either in ancient or modern times. The building will cover approximately eleven acres.

Commission Merchants Adjourn.

SEVEN PERSONS
DEAD IN A FIRE

Destruction of a Building in Which Entire Family is Cremated.

A BUFFALO HORROR

Incendiarism Suspected—Two Men Are Held Pending a Thorough Investigation.

FAMILY IS WIPED OUT

Buffalo, Jan. 13.—An entire family of seven persons was wiped out by a fire which destroyed their home early in the morning, and two men are under arrest pending an investigation of the blaze. Henry Pearlstein, his wife and five children, ranging from 13 months to 12 years, occupied apartments in a two-story building, the lower floor being occupied by a shoe store. Joseph Sipowski, who owned the building, and Karl Brackl, his brother-in-law, are suspected of guilty knowledge of the fire. Sipowski carried $9,000 insurance on the building and its contents. Sipowski told the police that he accidentally dropped a lamp. A few minutes after the fire began there was a loud explosion that blew out the front of the store and hurled some of the contents of the windows into the middle of the street. Plate glass windows on the opposite side of Broadway were shattered, and the report of the explosion was heard two blocks away. The flames enveloped the building in a short time. The family living in the rear flat barely escaped with their lives. The Pearlsteins were awakened, but before they could reach the only stairway leading from their rooms the fire had undermined the floor in the hallway and it collapsed, carrying them down into a mass of flames. Their charred bodies were found at 8 o'clock, four hours after the firemen had extinguished the flames. The body of the mother and baby were found together, the little one tightly clasped in its mother's arms. Pearlstein's body was found close to that of his wife. He also held one of the children in his arms. The bodies of the other three children were found huddled together close to the father's body.

Fire Destroys Big Mailing Elevator.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Fire that started this morning at 2 o'clock in the American Mailing company's elevator at Fifty-second street and the Panhandle railroad destroyed the building and its contents, causing a loss of more than $250,000. There were 300,000 bushels of barley in the building, all of which, it was said, would be ruined.

AND SHOT HIMSELF

Celiberate Crime of a Boiler Maker at Madison Employed by the St. Paul Road.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Benj. C. Kelg, until recently employed as a boiler maker by the C. M. & St. P. road killed his wife with a huge carving knife and then cut his own throat early this morning at their home here.

The crime was committed in the basement and was not discovered until a late hour. A man passing about 5:30 o'clock heard a quarrel and the wife entreating the husband not to kill her.

Neighbors say there had been frequent quarrels. Kelg was recently discharged from his position after conviction for assault and battery on Alderman Hayes, a fellow employee, and had been morose since. He is still alive but in a critical condition.

LONG JONES NOT OUT OF POLITICS

Waukesha, Wis., Jan. 13.—"Long" Jones is considerably annoyed by the representations of a Milwaukee Democratic evening paper, copied in a Chicago morning paper. It was reported that he had dropped politics forever, and would not be a candidate for re-election to the state senate. This, he says, is a great mistake and an injustice to him. "I am not out of politics," he said today; "far from it; in fact, I stand where I have stood, being one of the stalwarts working for republican success in the state."

Senator Jones will be a candidate for re-election to the senate and support the stalwart candidate for the governorship.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The plant of the American Mailing company was burned this morning. Loss $200,000.

PLAY FIRST GAME OF ROLLER POLO

The Game Consisted of Three Fifteen Minute Thirds, and Resulted in a Tie.

The first game of roller polo of the season in this city and the first game of the series inaugurated by the Western Polo League was played at the Palace rink Saturday night between the Horlicks of Racine and the Taylors of Janesville. The game was exceedingly interesting from start to finish and was replete with good plays.

A number of the plays were made by a long drive from near the center of the rink, while others were made by off side shots and good team plays in which the ball was passed back and forth across the rink to the players until it was in front of the cage where a quick pass put it in the net.

The Horlicks demonstrated their ability as team players by doing very little slugging and depended on making their goals by quick pass work from one to the other, and in always having a man at the right place at the right time.

Considering that the Taylors have not been practicing over a week they put up a good game. They will be able to hold their own with any first-class team, as soon as they get their team play perfected and do not depend so much on individual plays to make the goals. The work of Smith, Olle and Relchert of the Horlicks was especially good. Kellogg their goal tender, understands his business and stopped many a fast drive that would have landed the ball in the cage.

Murphy and Blakely easily carried off the honors for the Taylors, Murphy making five out of the eight goals. He was ably assisted by Blakely, Schaffer and Behrendt.

The game consisted of three fifteen minute thirds and resulted in a tie, the score being eight to eight when time was called at the end of the last third. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

HORLICKS.	TAYLORS.
Smith.....	Olle.....
Relchert.....	Murphy.....
Kellogg.....	Blakely.....
Schaffer.....	Schaffer.....
Behrendt.....	Behrendt.....
Goal.....	Goal.....

The first goal was made by Olle of the Horlicks in 9:06. The second was made by Murphy if the Taylors in 1:47. The call of time found the teams fighting for another goal.

In the second third Relchert scored for the Horlicks in 1:24 and the next goal was won by Blakely of the Taylors after 51 seconds' play. The Horlicks won their third goal in 3:54. Olle doing the trick. Relchert won the next two goals for the Horlicks in 3:12 and 1:20 making the score 5 to 2 in favor of the Horlicks.

Murphy made a lucky pass and caged the ball for the Taylors in 31 seconds making the score 5 to 3 in favor of the Horlicks. Olle made the next goal for the Horlicks in 1:22. Schaffer scored for the Taylors in 2:52 and Murphy made the next two goals in 55 seconds and 1:54 leaving the score at the end of the second third 6 to 6.

The Horlicks started out in the last third to win and Olle landed two goals in 5:05 and 2:09, leaving the score 8 to 6 in favor of the Horlicks. The Taylors now began to hustle and the next goal was made by Murphy in 2:18 and Blakely followed with a goal in 1:50 making the score a tie. The remainder of the fifteen minutes passed without either side scoring. The next game of the series will be between the Taylors and the Horlicks at Racine on Saturday, January 18. About a thousand people witnessed the outcome.

The Horlicks were accompanied to this city by W. F. Relchert, manager; Milton Horlick, A. H. Barnes, D. H. Casterson, L. Olle, L. Klinkert, C. Olsson and the Misses Relchert.

The Land of Sunlight

Death came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Roberts at 9 o'clock last evening and released the spirit of their little daughter Margarette Mary. From the double bondage of great physical weakness and suffering and from blindness.

Margarette was eleven years old. The family came from Milwaukee about three years ago, to be near the little girl while she was being educated at the State School for the Blind. She possessed a mind that was unusually bright, but a body that was frail. It was soon discovered that she was unable to endure the strain of school life, and so much of her time was spent at home.

She was a great lover of music and possessed talent that only lacked physical strength to develop and mature. Old for her years and with a mind that grasped things beyond the

She retained consciousness to the last going out into the Unseen without fear, to enjoy in its fullest sense the beauties of the life eternal.

Generous sympathy will be extended to the home so full of sorrow and loneliness.

The funeral will be held at the house corner Vista avenue and College Place Wednesday afternoon. The hour will be announced tomorrow.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

This may not be the money making season with the large mass of farmers, but it is a time when a great deal of it can be saved in the plans laid for making a nice lot of it next summer. Some plans will abort and some will win. It behooves all of us to select the winning kind.

It is a debatable question whether the man who is selling off all his hogs on account of a scarcity of corn and because of high priced hogs, is not killing the goose that lays the golden eggs. Brood sows will be a high price next spring and will be in demand.

A friend who has been running a corn sheller every winter for over twenty winters says he has not had a single call yet this winter. Perhaps possessors of corn are not selling shelled corn this year. I wonder why? Corn is a pretty good thing to hold on to, and if one finds his hold slipping he had better take a little time for splitting on his hands and still hold on.

Make a contract with the hired man for next year so that both the employer and the employee will understand it. Have an understanding about holidays, nights, Sundays, milking time, pay days, and the duty of each regarding other matters of detail.

Plant ice. Buy garden seeds now. Take a glance at the seed crop. Do some building on paper. Let the other fellow look for soft snaps, but if any of them come your way, take them in. Remember that a rat is an unprofitable boarder. Don't get scared at anything unless there is something at which to get scared. Always be able to listen to what the other fellow has to say if he is worth listening to at all. These are some thoughts that occurred to me between chore times.

Keep a sheep dry and it will not mind cold weather. A sheep must have quarters that are dry overhead and under foot.

A young man who lives on a farm in a neighborhood where all the farm buildings are kept up and nicely painted, with good water systems, visited some relatives in another locality where the buildings were old, run down, and without paint, and he could not help noticing the contrast. He asked a relative why the people did not keep up their places better. Later on this relative visited this young man at his home, and he, too, noticed the advancement the nice buildings and painted barns, windmills, and all sorts of up-to-date improvements. Both young farmers have learned a lesson from this interchange of ideas and observation. One is glad he lives where there is advancement and the other is glad he visited the place, for he will take home a spirit that will mean improvement on the farm of his father, which will soon spread to the neighbors.

Some farmers ought to be drilled in the matter of wells. To know when

PROGRESS OF THE PYTHIAN ORDER

According to the Last Reports There Are About 800,000 K. of P's in the World.

Judge Henry Clay Berry, of Chicago, head of the Uniformed Rank of the Knights of Pythias was in Milwaukee reporter about the order. He said:

"The order is more prosperous today than it ever has been in its history. The general prosperity that has prevailed all over the country has affected us. The endowment rank has paid $152,000 of the claims which have been held in abeyance. There are $50,000 or $60,000 more of claims that have been in litigation that are being examined and paid off as fast as their justice can be established. When the rates in the endowment rank were raised last October it was predicted that there would be a loss of 40 per cent of the membership by reason of the lapses. As a matter of fact he loss has been less than 3 per cent.

"According to the last report there were about 550,000 Knights of Pythias in the world; I think we now number about 600,000. The present supreme chancellor, Ogden H. Fethers, of Janesville, is in Honolulu. In company with the superior officers over there he is making a tour of the lodges, endeavoring to arouse enthusiasm. There are seven lodges over there, with between 700 and 800 members, and they want to institute a grand lodge and have a jurisdiction of their own. They are now attached to California. There are three lodges in Mexico, which have recently been placed in the Texas jurisdiction. Mr. Fethers will be in San Francisco Feb. 19, to attend the anniversary celebration which has been called by the Sir Knights on the Pacific coast, the object being to make arrangements for the meeting of the supreme lodge in San Francisco next August."

BENEFIT FOR THE USHERS

"A Wise Guy" a three act musical comedy which was pronounced one of the funniest shows of last year comes to the Myers Grand on Monday, Jan. 20, with the following cast: Edmond Hayes; Adele Palmer, the Harmony Four, John McVeigh, Katherine Hayes, three Sylester Sisters, Gertrude Homes, Edna Farrell, Margaret Robinson, Dennis Mullen, Chas. Trainor, C. W. Totten, Charles Miller and a large chorus.

Anticipating the arrival of Hoyt's "A Day and a Night" company it may not be amiss to announce that this season the production will surpass all previous presentations of this funny farce comedy. The most novel, intricate, bewitching music has been composed by an eminent arranger. The songs fresh from the printer will be sung for the first time in public and are sure to be whistled by every lad in town after the show takes its departure. The scenic accompaniments are rich in color, elegant in design and blend with perfect harmony with the rich and fashionable garments worn by them any beautiful women carried by "A Day and a Night" company, which comes to Janesville on January 24.

"The Belle of New York." Like most Casino successes, has a title that suggests girls. This "Belle" is considered the most popular of them all. Within the last four seasons the stage in this country has seen the "Belle of Bohemia," "The Belle of Bridgeport," "The Liberty Belle," "The Beauts and Belles," as well as any number of "girls" such as "The Girl From Maxims," "The Casino Girl," "The Runaway Girl," "The Circus Girl," "The Girl From Up There," "The Summer Girl," and "The Girl With the Auburn Hair." While many of these have been successful, it has remained for "The Belle of New York" to establish the enviable record of being "the greatest girl of them all." Her performances have run up to the astonishing number of 2,000 times and she numbers legends of admirers in England, Australia and America. Its only appearance here will be on Feb. 11.

WAIT FOR PLAN OF ARBITRATION

The Pan-American Conference Has Been Again Delayed
by Mexico.

ARGENTINA IS NOW RESTIVE.

Will Withdraw if Postponements Do Not End Soon—Chili Holds Out Against the Compulsory Plan—American International Museum Favored.

Mexico City, Jan. 13.—The meeting fixed for this morning between the representatives of the American, Mexican, Argentine and Peruvian delegations to the Pan-American conference for the purpose of definitely settling the arbitration dispute did not take place, as the Mexican representatives asked for a further postponement on account of not having been able to consult with President Diaz, who is absent from the city on a brief outing to Vera Cruz and will return tomorrow. In the meantime the Argentines and their friends are getting tired of delays and say that if they are prolonged beyond a reasonable point they will take them as equivalent to a definite rejection of their claims to have the compulsory plan pass through the conference, and will therefore withdraw. The Chilians, on the other hand, have not abated their demand that the compulsory plan shall not be reported to the conference and drop all sorts of mysterious hints about what they will do if it is. The Chilians base their claims not only on the general understanding that nothing disagreeable to Chili was to be discussed by the conference, but upon the alleged verbal and specific promise made to their minister, Bellocdecoide, in an interview, by Ignacio Mariscal, minister of foreign relations of the Mexican government, that the subject of compulsory arbitration should not be brought up. The Mexicans say that the Chilians misunderstand the real import of this interview. Nevertheless, at the present moment it looks very much as though the Chilians were going to have their way, although it is impossible to make any certain forecast. If the Argentines and their friends withdraw they will almost assuredly do so in the course of the present week. No one here can clearly understand why the Chilians should not take the same ground as the United States in this matter, viz.: Refrain from having anything to do with the compulsory treaty, but allow those who want to sign it full liberty to do so. The question arises, if the Argentines really withdraw in the coming week, how many delegations will they take with themselves? They assert that they can take five. The withdrawals of six delegations would mean a serious blow to the conference, endangering the quorum. The Chilians, however, maintain that only the Peruvians and the Bolivians will withdraw with the Argentines. The committee on general welfare has adopted the resolutions of Volney Foster of the United States and Senor Chavero of Mexico looking to the preservation of archaeological monuments in the countries of America. It is the intention of the conference in providing for the creation of this commission that its labors shall result in the establishment of an international American museum, which shall be made the center for works of investigation and interpretation and the receptacle for the materials gathered. Another object is to uncover and preserve the ruins of the principal ancient cities existing within the American republics and establish in each republic a museum of objects collected in such cities.

He served under General Beauregard and later under General Robert E. Lee, and was with him when he surrendered at Appomattox. He was born in 1828 and leaves a son and a widow.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise, it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously. A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves. As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs. No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eczema on my hands and face for 7 years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Siegfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that two years ago she was afflicted with Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

AGREES WITH SENATOR WHITEHEAD.

"Senator Kreutzer was asked to give his views regarding the taxation views of Senator Whitehead, as expressed in his Madison address, and said: "Owing to my association with him in the senate, where our relations were most intimate and friendly I can say that I was prepared to find the senator taking the position he did. It is practically the same that he has maintained from the commencement of his legislative career. Knowing Senator Whitehead as I do, I look upon him as a practical reformer, with conservatism enough to make him a safe man in any position. His views on taxation reflect the conclusion on the subject I have arrived at after considerable thought and study of the question of taxation. I know this is true of Whitehead—he is broad enough and careful enough so that all his interests of whatever nature have nothing to fear at his hands. During the sessions we have been members of the senate our relations were such that I am in a position to speak of Senator Whitehead with a knowledge of his worth and ability."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The discovery will be made as time advances, that the sober thinking element of the party, throughout the state agree with Senator Kreutzer in his estimate of Senator Whitehead as a man, and endorse his sentiments on taxation. Mr. Whitehead is neither visionary nor impulsive. His decisions on important questions are never hasty. He wouldn't know how to manage a hobby, for he never possessed one. The man who honestly opposes him in debate, or who conscientiously differs with him in opinion, is never regarded as an enemy. His best friends were not informed as to his attitude on the primary election law, until after the Stevens bill was presented and he had been given plenty of time to digest it.

Governor La Follette had no more loyal supporter during the campaign than Senator Whitehead, and had he been invited to counsel, the governor would have found a level headed advisor, possessing a mind free from narrowness or prejudice.

The primary law, like the Bennett law, is a dead issue, so far as the Stevens bill is concerned. If it is dragged into the next campaign the people will stamp the seal of disapproval upon it, with a vigor that cannot be misunderstood. The primaries may not be perfect, but they are infinitely better than the radical change contemplated in the Stevens bill. The question is purely a question of theoretical reform containing elements of abuse that make it unwise and dangerous to public welfare.

The problem of taxation does not belong to this class of questions. It is a living and ever present issue, requiring the broadest statesmanship and most conservative judgment unbiassed by prejudice, to deal with it intelligently.

In discussing this question before a social club, Senator Whitehead possessed the good sense to handle it in a general way. He could not go into the specific discussion of so important a question, in the time allotted, and had he attempted to do so, he would have been justly criticized.

The topic outlined struck a popular chord throughout the state, indicating that when matters of moment are under discussion, respectful attention is commanded.

The question of just and equitable taxation is vital to both public and private interests. It is broader than politics and of more significance than theoretical reform. The republican party, if continued in power, is responsible for whatever adjustment may result, and the trust should be considered sacred.

Whether Governor La Follette is honored by a second term, or whether some other man is selected to preside over the destinies of the state, the tax problem will be an ever present issue.

HE SEES AN ISSUE.

The Hon. Adlai Ewing Stevenson was found in Chicago the other day and gave his views with great freedom and hopefulness. He sees a happy new year for the democratic party. As a seer of happy new years, Uncle Adlai is, perhaps, without a rival. Nothing can take the edge off his optimism. He was happy after the great democratic smash-up in 1896. He saw victory ahead and he has been chasing it ever since. It was too far ahead in 1900 for him to catch up with it, but he is sure that better sprinters will have better luck. "The next twelve months will see the party on its feet again and able to present an unbroken front to the foe." The next president is to be a democrat; Uncle Adlai will take no denial as to that. The unbroken front which is to replace the present broken back is to be secured by this simple means:

"We could not ask for a stronger issue than the tariff."

This is the strong issue which elected Mr. Stevenson vice-president in 1892. The democrats were going to destroy the tabernacles of protection. Instead they shingled them carefully and put in new floors. At the mention of this strong issue, the Star-Eyed Goddess wakes from her charmed sleep in Col. Waterson's obituary boudoir, coughs thirteen times, winks with either eye and falls to snoring again. The Robber Barons rub their hands and grin. The Hon. William Rufus Morrison of Waterloo points significantly to his P. O. address and turns his back. The Hon. Roger Quarles Mills of Corsicana, Oil Baron, is counting out the money. The issues of the Treasury Department are only strong issues that interest him. The democrats of Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, look at their growing industries and waggle their fingers at their noses in a manner most disrespectful to the strong issue.

But Uncle Adlai beams incorrigibly. A gentleman can only offer his friends the best he has.—New York Sun.

The Honorable "Adlai" is not the only democrat who is looking for an issue. The party is so badly demoralized that it is grasping at straws, in a vain effort to find something tangible. The hope is entertained that Mr. Bryan with his 6,000,000 followers is dead beyond resurrection, but he promises to be a troublesome derelict. General Miles is suggested as a possible candidate, not that he represents any issue greater than canned beef and a personal grievance.

Admiral Schley is also mentioned by a few people who seem to have an ambition to make the court of inquiry a permanent organization. A sort of an inland warship, where engagements can be carried on at short range without becoming seasick.

The campaign is some ways ahead and the issue not yet in sight. It is among the possibilities that too much prosperity may produce a desire for "a change." The democratic party has been known to win on an issue as thin as that. It may happen that the people will get so full of prunes and other luxuries that it will be necessary to return to a soup diet for recuperation.

There are a number of things that may happen to dispel the gloom from democratic vision, but life is too short to contemplate trouble when the sky is clear and the landscape pleasant to look upon.

OF COURSE HE COULD NOT.

"That old, old story is being bandied around that Gov. La Follette could not get along with the legislature. Of course he could not. No official could who had any manhood about him. The stalwarts and adherents wished him to prove false to the people who placed him in the gubernatorial chair. He refused. For this they are attempting to dig his political grave, but they will not succeed. Gov. La Follette will be the next governor of Wisconsin. Mark the prediction."—Marquette Star.

That's a fine proposition to emanate from an organ of the governor. The people elected the legislature and after they had completed the job the representatives were so contemptible that "no official who had any manhood about him" could get along with them.

What a precious lot of scamps they were, and what fools the people were for electing them. There may be lots of argument in that sort of a proposition, but if there is, it should be labeled. The average mind is too dense to take it in at a glance, and the more it is studied, the more dense it becomes.

There is only one solution that suggests itself to the ordinary mind, and that is that Robert M. La Follette is the embodiment of wisdom, the quintessence of knowledge, the infallible, great "I am." The people and their representatives are not in it for a minute. He can't get along with them, "of course he could not." His actions spoke quite loud during the session, but the language is emphatic. It is among the possibilities that the people will sympathize with this much abused governor, and that in the walks of quiet life where he may commune with the stars and other ethereal bodies, he may be able to preserve his "manhood."

The shortening of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road will give the company practically an air line to St. Paul. The Prairie du Chien and La Crosse divisions will be connected from points west of Madison, and fast trains will be run through Janesville over the Southeastern. The cut-off contemplated will save the company forty miles between the two cities.

In discussing the question of taxation, drop politics and consider justice and economy. There are some problems that are more vital than political preferment, and taxation belongs to this class.

Strawberries, twenty cents a box; the announcement in an El Paso paper. That's cheaper than Wisconsin potatoes.

Senator Whitehead innocently added to his fame. The people are not slow to recognize ability.

It is easy to talk tax reform, but easier to dodge the assessor.

Taxes will be a live issue after the primary law is forgotten.

The doers, and not the sayers, are the accomplisheers.

PRESS COMMENT

Wisconsin State Register: Another great cause of the growing lack of faith in La Follette as a safe leader is his dictatorial methods in public matters—more particularly in the legislature last winter. Columbia county republicans—these of them at least who are not in office or hoping to be—will not help Mr. La Follette nor any other man build up so impregnable a personal machine as to place the man before the legislature, which is the people.

Baraboo News: It begins to look as though Senator Whitehead is the man around whom republicans will be able to rally next summer. He has enough of the spirit of reform to satisfy the average La Follette adherent who is sincerely interested in proper legislative remedies, and his head is sufficiently balanced that he does not terrify the man who has capital interests at stake. The only persons who are likely to object to him are those who are interested in maintaining the political machine that Job La Follette has so ingeniously constructed.

La Crosse Republican-Leader: The fact remains that Gov. La Follette was nominated by a united party; he was supported by a united press; his administration began with a united party at his back, and a united legislature at his front, and united lieutenants supported him on both sides. Today there is a divided party; a divided legislature; a divided administration; a divided press; a repudiated governor.

Hudson Star-Times: Fred A. Dennett of Sheboygan is again looming up as a gubernatorial possibility to succeed the present incumbent in Wisconsin. Dennett is all right, but the real logical candidate is honest John Whitehead of Janesville. He is the father of genuine tax reform in the state and a man who is big enough to rise above mediocrity without attempting to stand upon the heads of other public men.

Grant County Herald: When Robert La Follette was elected he was backed by a united party with 100-600 majority. He has been in office a year and his party is so split that nearly all the republican papers are opposing him. If he were the proper man for governor would this be?

Eau Claire Leader: The most valuable asset of Mr. James Pierpont Morgan is not wealth; it is the confidence of his fellow men. The most timid capitalist will invest his all on Mr. Morgan's advice. Confidence is the basis of his great financial power.

Appleton Crescent: Will Governor La Follette create a state constabulary to enforce his favorite measures of levying a tax on all ice harvested for export?

Marquette Eagle: The tax reform ideas of Senator Whitehead seem to strike the popular fancy more than do those of the governor. The latter's reform led to increased taxes.

Hartford Press: The taxation speech of Senator Whitehead evidently gave the half-breeds a severe case of stage fright.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Janesville Gazette continues to assert with charming ingenuousness that Governor La Follette is a good fellow all right—but dangerous.

Marquette Star: The stalwarts are evidently thinking of grooming Senator Whitehead as their candidate for governor.

Eau Claire Telegram: The Eau Claire Leader is out with an editorial endorsing Whitehead for governor.

Racine Journal: The next governor of this state must concede he is not the whole push and that there are others, so to speak.

Lodi Enterprise: What a relief! One week has passed and not a word in the papers about Lodi farmers and the Chicago Masonic Temple.

WOULD MAKE A STRONG CANDIDATE.

The Leader this morning prints in full the speech of State Senator John M. Whitehead, delivered before the Six O'clock club at Madison on Monday evening last. The address is considered as of vital political importance, coming as it does from Senator Whitehead, one of Wisconsin's ablest and most prominent sons. The address is on the all absorbing topic of taxation matters.

The speaker displays such a thorough knowledge of his subject, that it is apparent he has delved deep into the intricate matter that has puzzled civilization since its beginning. Taxation is the very groundwork and foundation of our government, and the election to office of men conservative in character and with a thorough knowledge of the subject is of the utmost importance. There are a vast number throughout the state who would like to see such a man as Senator Whitehead at the head of state affairs. Perhaps it is too early at this time to prognosticate concerning gubernatorial possibilities, still the Leader would like to see a man of Mr. Whitehead's calibre occupy the government chair at Madison.—Eau Claire Leader.

The Leader was a democratic paper until Thanksgiving day, and has not been mixed up in the republican muddle.

QUITE RAPID.

Well, it begins to look as if the man selected to "down" Governor La Follette in the next republican state convention is Senator Whitehead of Janesville. Mr. Whitehead is a great big fellow—weighs more than two hundred and rises up in the air like the Saul of Scripture who went out looking for his father's lost asses and ran himself into a kingdom. Governor "Bob" is not as big—does not weigh as much, and does not rise up in the air very high, but he is quite rapid. Therefore, it may be that Mr. Whitehead may go hunting asses without running himself into a kingdom.—Necanah News.

NOTHING IN IT.

The Milwaukee Free Press will not aid its cause by unwarranted flings at Senator John M. Whitehead. That gentleman has a record which is very satisfactory to the voters of Wisconsin. In all of his legislative career, there is not an act for which he need make excuses to the voters.

What is more, Mr. Whitehead is a power, not only in his own community where he resides, but in the legislature, as well, and in the state at large. He is guided by principles, rather than prejudice, and just here, perhaps, is to be found the reason why certain gentlemen would like to dishonor him. It will be a futile effort, however, for attacks on Senator Whitehead, such as those emanating from the Free Press, will only react upon parties making them.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

THE SIMPLE TRUTH.

Some of the state newspapers will have it that Senator Whitehead is the candidate of the Wisconsin Republican league for governor. As we understand it, the league, in opposing Gov. La Follette, has no candidate and is not putting forward any man against any other man. Its one ambition, we believe, is to have nominated for governor a republican—a loyal, unmistakable republican. If Whitehead is the particular man chosen by the convention, he is then the candidate—not of the republican league alone, but of the republican party. And he is a good enough candidate too.—Stoughton Hub.

Let us speak of man as we find him. And censure only what we can see. Remembering that no one is perfect, unless he uses Rocky Mountain Tea Smith's Pharmacy.

AMERICAN ENTERPRISE WINS.

Control of European Water Routes Secured by Yankee Capital.

London, Jan. 13.—One of the most important of American commercial enterprises in Europe has just culminated here. It consists in the securing of all water routes for American cargoes of grain and other commodities from inland ports in the United States to inland ports in Europe, and embraces the purchase by American capital of several British and other canals.

As a result cargoes will shortly be shipped on the same bills of lading from Duluth Minn., to Brussels, Barges, Ghent, and Cologne, and, later, to many points in the United Kingdom, France, Germany, and Italy.

At the forthcoming session of parliament the British legislators will be asked to grant permission for the erection of central power stations for the propulsion of traffic on at least two British canals. These will be operated with American capital, though their control will nominally remain in British hands.

Croker Steps Down and Out.

New York, Jan. 13.—Croker is out. The boss has been forced to step aside, and Tammany hall has placed at its head a young man whose friends say is above reproach. Lewis Nixon, the man who designed the battle ship Oregon, is now the tiger's trainer. Croker reigned supreme for nearly twenty years. He succeeded John Kelly, whose predecessor was William Marcy Tweed, the man who died in prison, friendless and disgraced. Croker is going to Wantage, and he will stay there indefinitely.

Columbia Seizes a Steamer.

Colon, Colombia, Jan. 13.—The South American Steamship company having refused to charter its steamer Lantaro to the Columbian government, to be used by the latter as a gunboat, General Alban, the military commander of this district, to-day issued a decree appropriating the vessel. He has taken possession of it, and has deposited a sum of money equal to its value with Senator Ehrman, a banker of Panama. The captain and crew of the Lantaro will remain in the service of the Columbian government.

Miss Stone Still a Captive.

London, Jan. 13.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail says that negotiations with the brigands for the release of Miss Stone, the abducted American missionary, have not yet been opened. W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American Bible house at Constantinople, and Dragoman Gargiulo are instructed to negotiate only with bearers of letters from Miss Stone.

AN APPETITE FOR CHICKENS

Frank Haney Caught Robbing the Chicken Coop of A. F. Kreuger on N. Franklin Street.

An appetite for chickens got Frank Haney of Ashland avenue in serious trouble Saturday night. About eight o'clock he entered A. F. Kreuger's chicken house at 157 North Franklin street, captured two of the largest fowls in the coop and started to make his escape. As he stepped out the door of the chicken house which is close to the sidewalk he encountered a boy named Fred Burghardt. He spoke to the boy and then stepped back like he was going to return the fowls to the coop.

The boy went on a short distance and hid until he saw Haney come out with the two chickens in his hands and then start towards the buckle factory building. Mrs. Kreuger had retired for the night when she heard the chickens squawk and without waiting to dress she picked up a lamp and started for the hen house followed by her daughter. When Haney saw the light he started on a run and hid behind the scales at the buckle factory.

Young Burghardt had been watching Haney all the time and saw that he stopped behind the scales. He told Mrs. Kreuger and she and her daughter ran across the street and caught Haney just after he had wrung the neck off of one chicken and had choked the other to death. They grabbed the culprit and held him while Mrs. Kreuger's young son went down to the butcher shop after his father.

Mr. Kreuger was soon on the ground and took Haney down to his shop. Officer Brown was notified and called at the shop and took Haney to the lock-up.

After four months he bought out M. Williams and continued the business two years, then sold to Mr. Williams and removed to Delavan in 1866, and bought the drug stock of C. M. McKee, and is still in trade at that place, rounding out some sixty-two years in the drug business.

FAST ICE RACES ON KOSHKONONG

Janesville Man's Boat Bolds Its Own—Several More Races During the Winter.

The ice boat regatta held lately on Lake Koshkonong was quite exciting and closely contested. The lake was in first class condition for the sport, the ice being quite smooth and free from snow, which interferes with the running of the boats. The course was a triangular one about ten miles long and including the tracks necessary to round the stakes made the distance about twelve and one-half miles. The first race for the Carcajon cup was twice around the course making the distance to be covered about twenty-five miles.

The boats entered for this race were owned by R. Saunders, A. Hoard, C. Bliven, George M. McKee and Frank Pierson. The boats were evenly matched and presented a fine appearance as they tore around the course under full sail. At all times during the race the boats were close together and it was a question who would win. During the last leg of the race Saunders secured a slight lead and held it to the finish which resulted as follows: Saunders, first; Hoard, second, Bliven, third; McKee, fourth and Pierson, fifth.

Mr. McKee had a good chance of winning the race but lost sight of one of the turning flags and lost some distance before he discovered his mistake. He made up considerable of the lost distance but was too far behind to catch the leaders.

The second race for the challenge cup between Hoard, Saunders and McKee was once around the course a distance of about twelve miles including the tacks. It was a very pretty race and was won by Mr. McKee in seventeen minutes and seven seconds. In this race Mr. McKee finished thirty-four seconds ahead of the Saunders boat which took the first race.

The owners of the boats have decided to hold several other races during the winter.

AN APPEAL TO HEALTH OFFICER

Local Butcher Calls Upon Dr. Fifeid to Examine Condition of a Dead Turkey.

Health Officer George W. Fifeid had a curious experience a few days ago in his capacity as health officer. A prominent West Side butcher came into his office carrying a large turkey. He stepped up to the doctor and said he would like to have him examine the bird and see if he could discover anything wrong with it. The doctor looked the bird all over and smelled of it but was not able to find anything wrong about it. He asked the butcher what was the matter with the turkey. He said a prominent Third ward family bought the turkey but sent it back to him saying it was spoiled. He didn't want to be turned down that way and wanted the opinion of the health officer as to whether or not it was spoiled. The doctor says he has many curious experiences in the discharge of his duties but this is the first time he ever had a case of this kind.

NORDICA INJURED IN A WRECK

The Famous Singer Among Victims of Collision on Southern Railway.

PASSENGER MEETS FREIGHT.

Engineer Killed, Locomotive Smashed and Car Consumed by Flames—Wrong
Assumption on Part of Passengers
Engineer Causes the Disaster.

Rome, Ga., Jan. 13.—Mme. Lillian Nordica, the famous singer, was injured in a train wreck that occurred early in the morning near Reeves station, twenty miles north of here on the Southern railway. The engineer was killed and several cars were consumed by flames. The train to which Mme. Nordica's private car, the Brunnehlide, was attached was a mixed passenger and freight and left Atlanta at 1:30 last night for Chattanooga. It arrived at Reeves station at 3:30 this morning, where it had orders to meet freight No. 55. A freight train, which proved to be an extra, was on the siding at Reeves when the passenger arrived and the engineer of the passenger, evidently assuming that it was No. 55, did not stop, but continued his run toward Chattanooga. A mile north of Reeves, while going at a rapid rate, the passenger met the freight on a sharp curve. The two engines crashed into each other and Engineer Tracey in attempting to jump was caught between the two locomotives.

The Dead and Injured.

The dead: Frank Tracey, engineer, Atlanta, injured: Lillian Nordica, Romalene E. Simmons, Guy Connally, engineer on freight; George Florence, passenger conductor; Ed. Lewis, fireman (colored). Mme. Nordica's car was attached to the rear of the passenger train. She sang in Atlanta Saturday night and was on her way to Nashville, where she is booked to fill an engagement Monday night. When the collision occurred Mme. Nordica was asleep in her bed in the private stateroom of the car. The sudden jar threw her from her bed to the floor. It is understood that she sustained a badly bruised shoulder and the muscles of her neck are said to have been strained. Dr. Garlington, the Southern railway's surgeon here, was immediately summoned and attended the singer. Dr. Garlington stated last night that he thought she would be able to fill her engagement to-night.

Nordica's Accompanist Hurt.

Mr. Simmons, her accompanist, sustained injuries to his right hand. The exact condition of the injured member was not ascertained here, but it is reported here that he will be able to play to-night. Mme. Nordica's car was not derailed, and together with two other Pullmans was returned to Rome and sent over the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis to Nashville. Both engines were badly wrecked and twelve cars, it is said, were burned. The engineer and fireman of the freight escaped death by jumping. The tracks were cleared by night and traffic resumed.

Wreck on the Panhandle.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—A fast flying Panhandle passenger train, Chicago bound from New York, and some time behind its scheduled hour for arrival, crashed into the rear of the Panhandle train from Cincinnati at 5:30 o'clock last night, at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad crossing at Western avenue and Forty-ninth street, and, though a score of men and women were severely shaken by the impact, only two men, attaches of the trains, were severely hurt. They are: Robert Hatcher, 44 years old, Chicago, cook on dining car Delmonico; crushed in telescoping of coach and terribly burned when the wreckage caught fire; arms broken, limbs burned and torn and hurt internally so severely that he may die. John Tuberty, 26 years old, Logansport, Ind.; jumped from engine of colliding train and was cut on head and face; shoulder hurt and internal injuries.

Soldier Escapes in a Box.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 13.—Frank Holt, a military prisoner on Alcatraz island, serving a thirteen-year sentence for desertion, has escaped. He concealed himself in a large wooden box which was consigned to a clothing firm in this city and which was put aboard the steamer McDowell. The top of the box was so arranged with leather straps that it could be opened from the inside. It is thought that after the box was put aboard Holt crawled into it and did not emerge until the vessel reached the dock on this side of the bay. As Holt was dressed in a blue uniform, as any other soldier, he escaped without detection.

Demand Instant Obedience.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—Owing to recent evidences of a disposition on the part of the populace to demur at the demands of the police, Gen. Kleigel, the prefect, has caused notices to be posted imperatively ordering instant obedience to any orders by the police under heavy penalties.

Halling of Indiana Supreme Court.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 13.—The supreme court has held that passengers riding on free passes cannot recover damages for personal injuries; if they accept the company's contract. The decision does not apply to stock-drovers' passes issued in connection with bills of lading.

Expensive Blaze in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 13.—A fire of mysterious origin caused damage estimated at $130,000 in the building at 511 and 513 North Main street, occupied by the E. C. W. Meler China and Glass company. Concordia, Kan., Jan. 13.—A. E. Patterson, ex-city treasurer of Clyde, was found guilty in the district court of embezzling $5,000 of the city's money. The money was collected from the Clyde "joints" as license payments and turned over to Patterson as treasurer. He contended that the city received the money illegally and could not, therefore, hold him accountable for it.

We Wonder

there are sixty-five men in this city whose chest measure is 38, 40, 42 or 44 inches and who would each buy a suit which we usually sell at $15 and $18, for $12. We have just these sizes left of several of our best selling lots, which were formerly priced as above and wish to clear out at the low price of $12 a suit. Necessary alterations to insure perfect fit made without extra charge. Some of these suits are plain blue, and black worsted-cheviots; a few are in fancy and striped Worsted and the balance are in neat effects and mixtures in tweeds and cassimeres.
